Wilensky Named a "New Leader of the Bar"

OLSS is delighted to share the news that Shareholder Laura N. Wilensky has been honored by The New Jersey Law Journal as one of its 2023 "New Leaders of the Bar." This award honors younger attorneys who have both notable achievements and outstanding potential in the practice of law.

Laura focuses her practice on trusts and estates law, concentrating on estate and tax planning and trust and estate administration. She regularly works with high net worth individuals and families to structure and implement estate, gifting and business succession plans to meet their personal and financial objectives in a tax-efficient manner. Laura drafts complex wills, revocable and irrevocable trusts, including life insurance trusts, dynasty trusts and charitable split interest trusts. In addition, she prepares gift, estate and inheritance tax returns and routinely advises fiduciaries in all stages of estate and trust administration.

Laura is a graduate of the Mid-Atlantic Fellows Institute of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC). She holds a B.A., with high distinction, from the University of Virginia; a J.D., with honors, from Emory University School of Law; and an LL.M. in Taxation from New York University School of Law.
