

ORLOFF
LOWENBACH
STIFELMAN &
SIEGEL P.A.

Orloff, Lowenbach, Stifelman & Siegel Adds Kevin M. Fenstermaker to Real Estate and Corporate Practice Groups

Orloff, Lowenbach, Stifelman & Siegel, P.A. (“OLSS”) is pleased to announce that Kevin M. Fenstermaker has joined the firm as Counsel in the Real Estate and Corporate practice groups.

“We welcome Kevin to the firm and are confident that his experience handling complex financing transactions, particularly in connection with redevelopment projects involving state and federal incentive programs, will enhance our ability to serve our clients well,” said Adam M. Haberfield, Co-President at OLSS.

Kevin has represented issuers, developers and borrowers in transactions involving the cumulative issuance of billions of dollars of bonds by state agencies, municipalities and their instrumentalities. He is well-versed in complex commercial real estate agreements, including structuring, drafting and negotiating financial agreements, loan agreements, ground leases, redevelopment agreements and related project agreements. Prior to joining OLSS, Kevin had been elevated to Partner at McManimon, Scotland & Baumann, LLC in Roseland, NJ.

Kevin earned his J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center and his B.A. from Boston College.