Laura Wilensky Accepted into the Mid-Atlantic Fellows Institute of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel

Laura N. Wilensky, an associate at the law firm of Orloff, Lowenbach, Stifelman & Siegel, P.A. (“OLSS”) in Morristown, New Jersey, has been accepted into the inaugural class of the Mid-Atlantic Fellows Institute of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC).

Laura earned her J.D. degree from Emory University School of Law in Atlanta, Georgia and earned a bachelor’s in Psychology from the University of Virginia. She recently completed an LLM in Taxation at New York University School of Law. She joined OLSS in 2013.

The Mid-Atlantic Fellows Institute was created by ACTEC Fellows to develop the profession’s future leaders in trust and estate law through a series of in-depth educational presentations led by outstanding subject matter experts in each field from across the U.S.

The institute includes six sessions for lawyers who were nominated by an ACTEC Fellow and selected through a competitive application process. The program begins in September 2019 and concludes in April 2020.
