Susan Holzman is Featured in a Podcast Entitled "Funeral Arrangements andDisposition of Human Remains"

Susan Holzman recently participated in a podcast sponsored by The ACTEC Foundation that addresses legal and practical challenges in estate planning and administration relating to funeral arrangements and the disposition of human remains, including how and when to discuss these issues with clients, and how and when a client can provide directions and designate a funeral agent. The podcast includes a discussion of the surprising variation among the states, and the unexpected complications that arise when an individual dies outside his or her state of residence. Susan provides guidance on steps that can be taken to improve the likelihood that a decedent's wishes will be honored.
