Supporting Gowanus Canal Conservancy

OLSS's Jack Vrablik, William Adelson, Devin Cohen, Nicholas Thomas, and Adam Haberfield recently attended Gowanus Blooms: 20 Years & Building at Powerhouse Arts Grand Hall in Brooklyn.

The Gowanus Canal Conservancy is a Brooklyn-based nonprofit dedicated to advocating for ecologically sustainable parks and public spaces in the Gowanus lowlands and empowering a community of stewards. We were honored to be a Rosebud sponsor of the Gowanus Canal Conservancy's 20th anniversary gala, and we're proud to support the meaningful work the organization undertakes.
