Raised in Morris County, Nicholas (“Nick”) Thomas attended Seton Hall University, where he received an undergraduate degree in English before attending The George Washington University Law School, where he received his J.D. degree. Prior to joining OLSS, Nick was a corporate/real estate associate at a boutique international tax-focused law firm in Manhattan.

Seeking to join a firm with a broader transactional practice that also serves the greater New Jersey community, Nick joined OLSS as an associate in the Corporate and Real Estate groups.

Nick focuses his practice on advising business and commercial real estate owners on a wide array of activities, including:

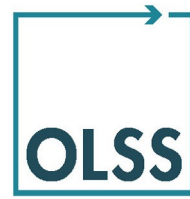

- Mergers and acquisitions
- Joint Ventures
- Entity choice and formation
- Corporate governance practices
- Capital Planning
- Real estate acquisitions, dispositions and financing
- Leasing
